Summary of reasons for decision:

The publication promotes and supports the exploitation of children for sexual purposes and is deemed to be objectionable under s3(2)(a) of the Films, Videos, and Publications Classification Act 1993. The video explicitly depicts two children engaged in intercourse. The video has clearly been orchestrated and filmed by an adult and produced for the sole purpose of arousing viewers with a sexual interest in children. The availability of such material encourages and reinforces this interest and presents children as sexually available for adults. The classification of this publication interferes with the right to freedom of expression set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990. However, this is an outcome that is consistent with Parliament's intention that publications falling under s3(2)(a) be banned, and reflects the concern of a free and democratic society to protect its young and vulnerable members from sexual exploitation.
